

CATECHETICAL RESOURCES FOR CHILDREN

For a synodal Church

communion | participation | mission

Pope Francis has called the People of God to discern the voice of the Holy Spirit in the Church today, with a view to the future.

He desires that we listen to the experiences and longings of the entire Body of Christ, and this includes the young church.

St. Benedict emphasizes how “the Lord often reveals the most prudent course to be followed” to those who do not occupy important positions in the community (in that case, the youngest); thus, the Bishops should take care to reach out to everyone, so that, in the orderly unfolding of the synodal journey, what the apostle Paul recommends to the communities may be realized:

“Do not quench the Spirit. Do not despise prophetic utterances.

Test everything; retain what is good” (1 Thess 5:19-21).

CATECHETICAL RESOURCES

The Synod on Synodality has created a two-fold opportunity for catechetical leaders and catechists.

First, to engage young people and their families in meaningful conversation about the role of the Holy Spirit in the Church, our call as baptized Catholics to participate fully in the mission of the Church, and living synodality could look like going forward.

Second, the synod has created an opportunity for catechesis and formation aimed at helping all the faithful to better understand and assimilated the idea of synodality.

This resource is intended to be used by Parish Catechists and Catholic School Teachers in order help the young Church to make the most of these unique opportunities. It is designed to be a "menu" of activities that parish leaders, catechists and Catholic school teachers can choose from. A variety of options are offered so that the activities can be easily implemented according to the needs and the resources of each individual parish/school.

We hope this tool assists leaders in the engagement and formation of the children and young people in our parishes and Catholic schools.

“All the baptized are called to take part in the Church’s life and mission.”

~ Pope Francis

SYNOD PRAYER ACTIVITY

Prayer is an essential pillar of the Synodal journey. This activity includes:

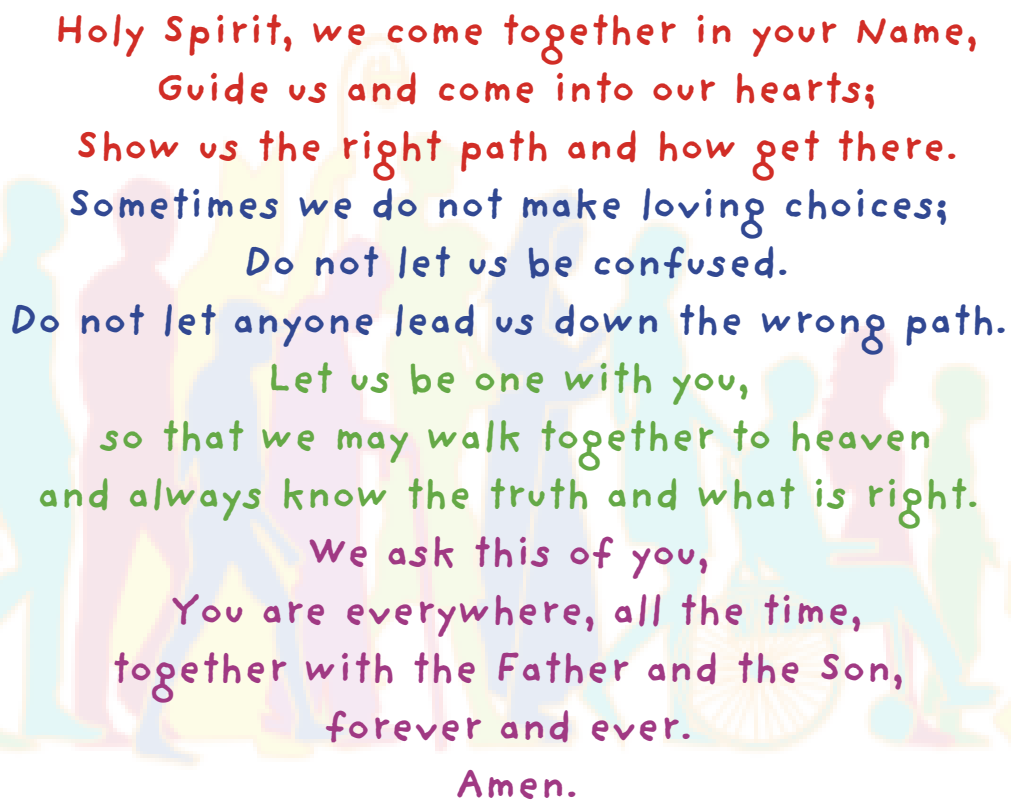

- A simplified version of the Synod Prayer, "Adsumus, Sancte Spiritus"
- A brief history of the prayer
- An activity that can help children understand the prayer.

Parish catechetical programs and Catholic schools may opt to use this prayer regularly with their younger children.

"The Holy Spirit is the protagonist of the Church's mission"

~ Pope Francis

Synod Prayer - Adapted for Grades K-2

Holy Spirit, we come together in your Name,
 Guide us and come into our hearts;
 Show us the right path and how get there.
 Sometimes we do not make loving choices;
 Do not let us be confused.
 Do not let anyone lead us down the wrong path.
 Let us be one with you,
 so that we may walk together to heaven
 and always know the truth and what is right.
 We ask this of you,
 You are everywhere, all the time,
 together with the Father and the Son,
 forever and ever.
 Amen.

Synod Prayer - History

This prayer was written by St. Isadore of Seville almost 1,500 years ago. Since then, the Church prays this special prayer whenever the Bishops gather for a meeting - a Synod. This year, Pope Francis invited all people around the world to the biggest meeting ever in the history of the Church. We will all pray that we can listen to the Holy Spirit during this time. Every time we pray this prayer, we are part of history!

Understanding the Synod Prayer

Slowly read a section of the prayer. Each section is a different color. For each section:

- Ask the children what words they heard. Ask if they know what all the words mean. Then ask what word they feel is their favorite or most important word. Ask them why.

Follow up questions for each section: (You may want to have images available to help the children (e.g. families, Church, nature, etc.)

- Section 1: What do you think it feels like when God comes into your heart? How does God guide you? (e.g. family, Church, etc.)
- Section 2: Why is it sometimes hard to making loving choices? What are some things we can do to show people we love them?
- Section 3: When do you feel close to God?
- Section 4: Where are some places that you see God? When have you felt God's love and care for you?
 - You can also invite the children to draw a picture to give an example of some of their answers above.

SYNOD LOGO AND COLORING PAGE

A great deal of thought and time went into the development of the Synod logo. It was designed to visually express the meaning of the Synod on Synodality. This activity includes:

- Looking at the Logo and discussing what it might mean.
- Learning about its significance as it was intended by the designer, Isabelle de Senilhes
- Coloring the logo

Parish catechetical programs and Catholic schools are encouraged to print posters with the Synod logo and to place them around their facilities as a visual reminder that the Church is currently engaged and praying for the Synod.

Synod LOGO A full page image of the logo can be found in Appendix A.

Questions to help the children explore the meaning of the logo.

Ask the children about each section of the logo.

- What does the large orange circle look like? What does it remind you of?
- What do the large orange brush strokes look like? What do they remind you of?
- What do the circle and brush strokes remind you of when you look at them together?
- What kinds of people do you see in the picture? What does it look like they are doing?
- Why do you think they are all in different colors?

Synod Logo - Explanation

It is a big and strong tree, full of knowledge and light that reaches the sky. It is a sign of life and looks like it is moving. It also reminds us of the cross of Jesus. The Eucharist shines like the sun. The branches also look like open hands and like the wings of the Holy Spirit. God's people are walking together under the shadow of the tree of life. There are 15 different types of people that symbolize all the people in the world. The bright colors give us joy. They are all together and everyone is equal. God loves everyone!

FOUNDATIONAL TOPICS

In order to better help the children understand the concept of the Synod, it will be helpful to introduce some basic concepts.

- Below is a list of topics that can help to support the other Synod activities.
- Consider that young children need as many concrete, hands on, and visuals examples in order to help them understand these concepts.
- The major Catholic publishers have materials that can help you plan lessons that will introduce the children to these topics. We encourage parishes and Catholic schools to utilize their current catechetical materials for this purpose. Throughout the year, as these topics are addressed catechists can make connections with the Synod.

Who is the Holy Spirit?

- Teach children the Sign of the Cross.
- Use the lessons and activities in your book that teach about the Trinity
- Use the different symbols used for the Holy Spirit (e.g. use images/coloring pages of doves, fire, etc.)

What is the Church?

- Talk about the meaning of the word "Catholic".
- Use a world map to emphasize the Church's presence throughout the world. Ask the children what countries they and/or their families are from.
- Ask the children to draw a picture of what they think "Church" means. (You may get lots of church buildings.)
- Show images of people gathered in churches. Show images of people engaged in works of mercy as a way of explaining the Church in action and on mission.

Who is the Pope, the Archbishop of Newark, Parish priests, laity?

- Use images of Pope Francis. Use the Pope Francis coloring page (Appendix A)
- Visit the Archdiocese of Newark website to find pictures of Cardinal Tobin, Archbishop of Newark, and to find pictures of the Auxiliary Bishops.
- Invite the pastor and parish priests to visit the children during a Faith Formation session.
- Invite some lay leaders in your parish to speak with the children about how they serve and lead in the Church.

CATECHETICAL MATERIALS FOR GRADES K - 2

FOUNDATIONAL TOPICS

How can we love one another better?

- Ask the children to name movies they've seen where people have helped one another and/or been kind to one another.
- Ask the children what they can do in the coming weeks to show someone they love them.
- Invite the children to draw a picture or make a card for someone they love.

ADDRESSING THE SYNOD QUESTION!

OPTIONAL ACTIVITIES:

- 1) Ask the children what they like most about God and about the Church.
 - Invite them to draw a picture.
- 2) Ask the children what is happening in the world that makes them sad. Ask them how they think Jesus and the Church can help the world be a better place.
 - Invite them to draw a picture of Jesus and or people in their church helping those who need it.

FOUNDATIONAL TOPICS

How can we include and love everyone the way Jesus does?

Check your catechetical materials for the following topics:

- Commandments
- Beatitudes
- Christian Service
- Forgiveness / The Sacrament of Reconciliation / Peace

Other Optional Activities:

- Ask the children where they have recently experienced love and kindness recently.
- Ask the children what they can do in the coming weeks to show someone they love them, in particular perhaps someone who they feel is left out of things or lonely.
 - Consider following up at a later time to ask the children how they felt after reaching out to someone.

"This is the first step in order to group in our journey of faith:
 Listening. Before speaking, listen."
 ~ Pope Francis

Listening

Listening is an essential part of the Synod. Following are some activities and questions to help children explore why listening is so important.

Discuss the following:

- How do you know when someone is listening to you? How can you tell when someone is not listening to you?
- How does it feel when someone listens to you? How does it feel when they don't listen to you?
- Why do you think that sometimes it is difficult to listen to others?
- What are some things you think you can do to be a better listener?

Listening Activities:

- Play "Telephone": Play a fun and simple game of "Telephone" to illustrate the importance of listening carefully.
- Tell a story: Ask the children to think about their favorite day or to recall a story about something funny that happened to them.
 - Pair each child with a partner and ask one child to tell the other one all about his/her favorite day.
 - Ask the child who listened to then retell the story.
 - Then they can switch roles so that each child has the opportunity to practice listening.

THE SYNOD QUESTIONS | THE SYNOD GAME

The Synod game has been designed in order to encourage children to share their responses to questions addressing many of the issues that will be discussed at the larger parish sessions in an age appropriate manner.

A full size game board, complete instructions, place markers and questions are found in Appendix B.

Game Overview

- Players begin at the space that says “START”. Players advance as many spaces as the dice indicate. Each time they land on a space they follow the instructions on the space.
- The player to reach the “END” first wins the game. If there is not enough time to finish the game during the session, the player who is farthest ahead wins.
- Spaces with questions marks indicate the player must share his/her response to a synod related question.
- More detailed instructions can be found in Appendix B.

Question Categories

- Listening
- Celebrating
- Participation and Responsibility
- The Church and the World
- Discern and Decide

Sample Questions

| CATEGORY | QUESTIONS |
|-----------|--|
| Listening | What are three things you think the church should do to improve? If you had the opportunity, what three things about the Church would you say to the Pope? How would you feel if you were asked to share your opinion with your parish priest, Bishop or the Pope? |
| | Who do you talk to when you have a problem? Is there someone in the parish/church who you think would listen to you if you need to talk about a problem or something that worries you? |
| | Do you ever talk about Jesus with your friends? Do you ever talk about Jesus with your friends? When you talk about Jesus, how do other people respond? |
| | Who in your life talks to you about Jesus? Where are these people? Do they listen to you when you want talk to them about religion? |
| Options | Would you rather . . . Eat donuts or candy? Would you rather . . . Have an extra finger or an extra toe? Would you rather . . . Only be able to crawl or only be able to walk backwards? Would you rather . . . Be a famous singer or a famous actor? |

Prayer is an essential pillar of the Synodal journey. This activity includes:

- The official Synod Prayer.
- A brief history of the prayer
- Activities that can help teens think more deeply about the words of the prayer and why they are important.

Parish catechetical programs and Catholic schools may consider incorporating the Synod Prayer into their regular school prayer routine during this time of Synod.

Synod Prayer

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
 as we gather together in Your name.
 With You alone to guide us,
 make Yourself at home in our hearts;
 Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.
 We are weak and sinful;
 do not let us promote disorder.
 Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
 nor partiality influence our actions.
 Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life
 and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
 All this we ask of You,
 who are at work in every place and time,
 in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.
 Amen.

FOUNDATIONAL TOPICS

In order to better help the teens understand the concept of the Synod, it is necessary to introduce some basic concepts.

- Below is a list of topics that can help to support the other Synod activities.
- Consider that middle school age teens are capable of more conversation and dialogue than younger children, but still greatly benefit from hands on, visual examples in order to help them understand these concepts.
- The major Catholic publishers have materials that can help you plan lessons that will introduce the children to these topics. We encourage parishes and Catholic schools to utilize their current catechetical materials for this purpose.

Who is the Holy Spirit?

Check your catechetical materials for the following topics:

- Trinity
- The Apostles Creed
- Pentecost
- The Sacrament of Confirmation
- The Gifts of the Holy Spirit, The Fruit of the Spirit

What is the Church?

Check your catechetical materials for the following topics:

- Chapters related to the Church.
- Church mission and discipleship
- The Sacrament of Baptism
- Church History
- Church leadership and hierarchy

Other Optional Activities:

- Talk about the meaning of the word "Catholic" / Universal. Use a world map to emphasize the Church's presence throughout the world.

- Working individually or in groups:
 - Ask the teens to draw their image of the Church. How they see the Church right now.
 - Read 1 Corinthians 12: 12-27 (One Body, Many Parts).
 - Ask the teens what image of Church does St. Paul give us?
 - Ask the teens to draw a representation of what they feel Jesus wants the Church to be.
 - The young people can then present their drawings and explain their interpretation of the reading.

FOUNDATIONAL TOPICS

How can we include and love everyone the way Jesus does?

Check your catechetical materials for the following topics:

- Commandments
- Beatitudes
- Life in Christ
- Catholic Social Teaching / Social Justice / Service
- Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy
- Forgiveness / Sacrament of Reconciliation / Peace

Other Optional Activities:

- Ask the teens where they have recently experienced love and kindness.
- Ask the teens to identify a person or a group of people who need some kind of care. Think of ways in which they can do something to make a difference for that person / group. If this is a Confirmation class connections to their service projects/activity can be made.
 - Consider following through with carrying out a project that can help the young people to put their faith in action and to "be the Church" in the world.

"Peace will be lasting in the measure that we arm our children with the weapons of dialogue, that we teach them to fight the good fight of encounter and negotiation.

In this way, we will bequeath to them a culture capable of devising strategies of life, not death, and of inclusion, not exclusion."

- Pope Francis

Listening

Listening is an essential part of the Synod. Following are some activities and questions to help teens explore why listening is so important.

- Discuss the following:
 - How do you know when someone is listening to you? How can you tell when someone is not listening to you?
 - How does it feel when someone listens to you? How does it feel when they don't listen to you?
 - What is your favorite way to communicate? (e.g. text, phone, in person, etc.) What do you think is the BEST way to communicate when you really need to have a serious conversation?
 - Why do you think that sometimes it is difficult to listen to others? What are some things you think you can do to be a better listener?
- Listening Activities:
 - Play a fun and simple game of "Telephone" to illustrate the importance of listening carefully.
 - Play a game of "Simon Says". Although this is typically a game for younger children, it can be adapted to older kids by incorporating more complex or silly directives. For example, "Simon says repeatedly high five your neighbor."*

THE SYNOD QUESTIONS | WHATSAPP

Pope Francis is inviting all the people of God to share from their heart during this Synod. This includes our young people. Here is an activity that may be used to facilitate reflection and conversation with middle school age teens.

Whatsapp Activity

1. Begin by having the teens complete an individual activity. (See appendix D)

2. Divide the young people into small groups and assign one color section/category to each group.

3. Ask each group to share their responses and the reasons for their responses to the questions in their assigned category. Ask them to summarize their responses to share with the large group.

Collecting the responses is not as important as opening a space for dialogue and conversation and allowing for free expression.

4. Then either divide the group into different groups or keep the young people in the same group.

5. Recalling their own responses to the survey as well as the sharing from all the groups, ask each group to discuss the following questions:

What positive and valuable contributions does the Church make to the world today?

What do you think should be changed and what issues do you think the Church should pay more attention to?

6. Ask the young people to share a summary of their responses by creating a "Whatsapp" message to Pope Francis with their opinions and suggestions.

THE SYNOD QUESTIONS | THE SYNOD GAME

The Synod game has been designed in order to encourage children and teens to share their responses to questions addressing many of the issues that will be discussed at the larger parish sessions in an age appropriate manner.

A full size game board, complete instructions, place markers and questions are found in Appendix B. For additional questions for Middle School see the survey in Appendix D.

Game Overview

- Players begin at the space that says “START”. Players advance as many spaces as the dice indicate. Each time they land in a space they follow the instructions on the space.
- The player to reach the “END” first wins the game. If there is not enough time to finish the game during the session, the player who is farthest ahead wins.
- Spaces with questions marks indicate the player must share his/her response to a synod related question.
- More details instructions can be found in Appendix B.
- MIDDLE SCHOOL: Prior to playing the game, catechists/facilitators can invite the teens to complete the individual activity in Appendix D. This may help the teens prepare to better respond to the game questions.

SYNOD GAME INSTRUCTIONS

You will need:

- The printed game board
- The questions (Only the catechist/facilitator should see the questions.)
- Dice
- Space markers (Print and cut out)

Select a player to begin at the space that says “START”. (You can select a player by using the dice or a question. (e.g. Whose birthday is coming up the soonest?, Etc.)

Each player rolls the dice when it is his/her turn. Then the player advances as many spaces as the dice indicate.

If the player lands on a question mark “?” space, the facilitator selects a question from the corresponding color category for the player to answer.

SKIP

If the player lands on a “SKIP” space, the player can skip answering a question.

ROLL AGAIN

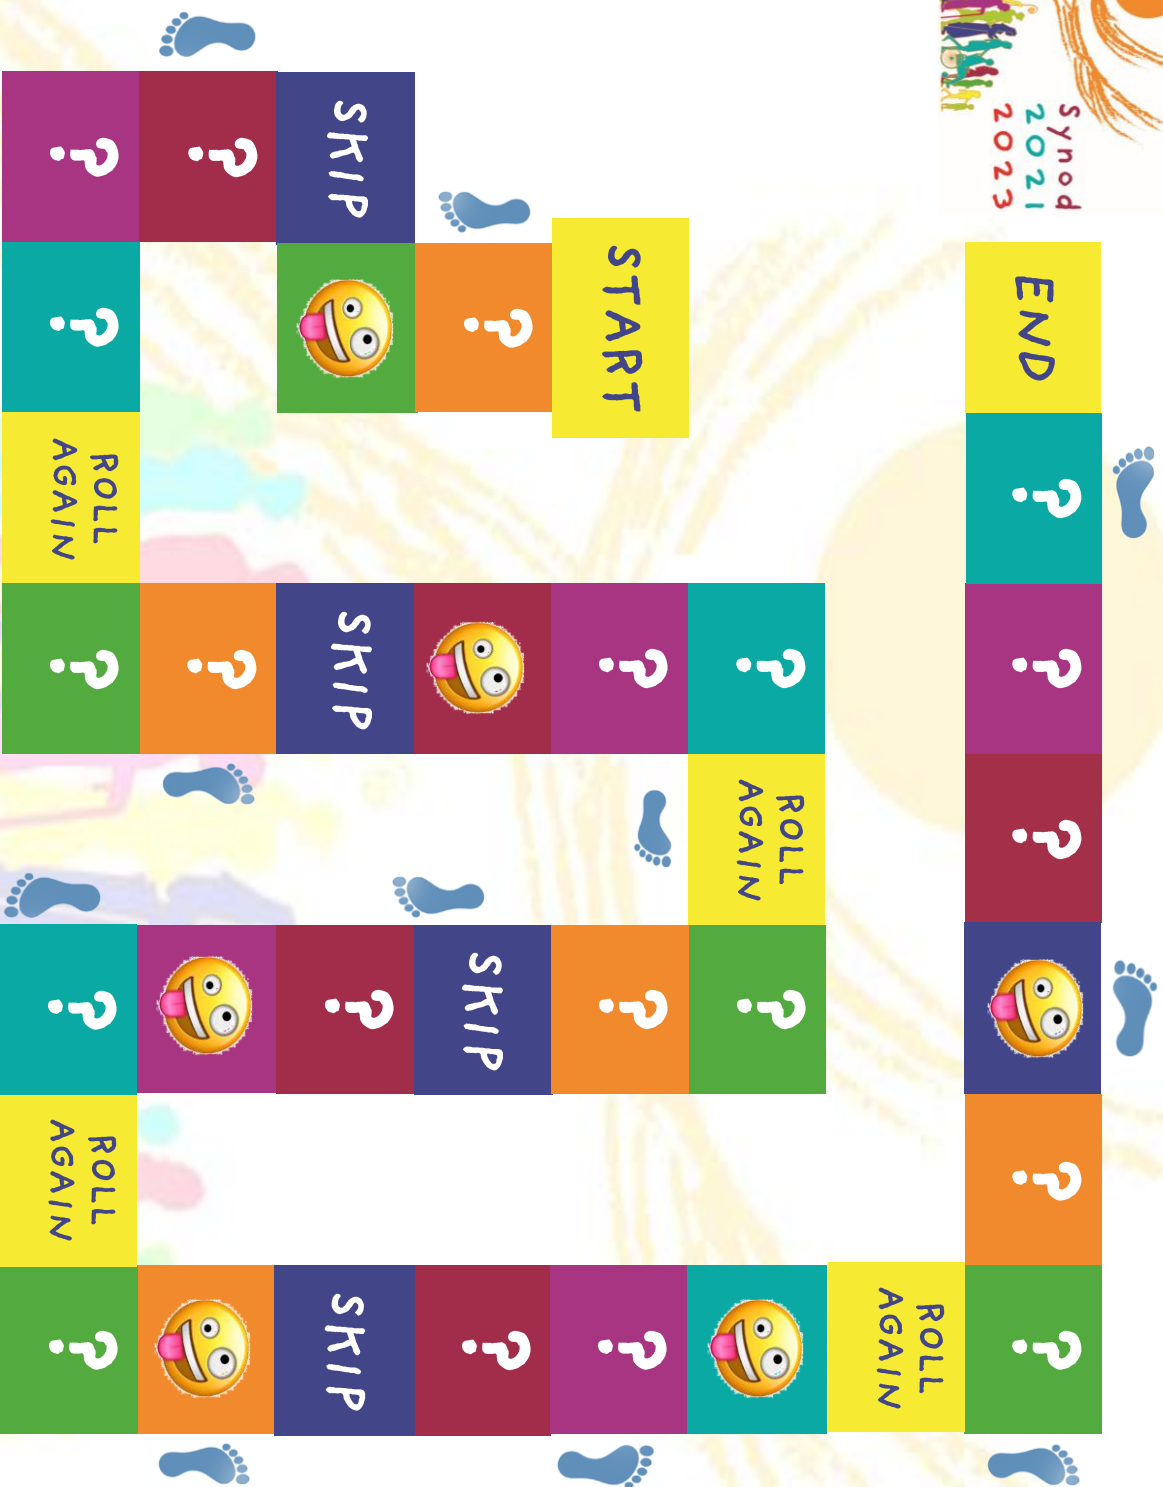

If the player lands on a “ROLL AGAIN” space, the player can roll again without answering a question and will follow the instructions on the next space.

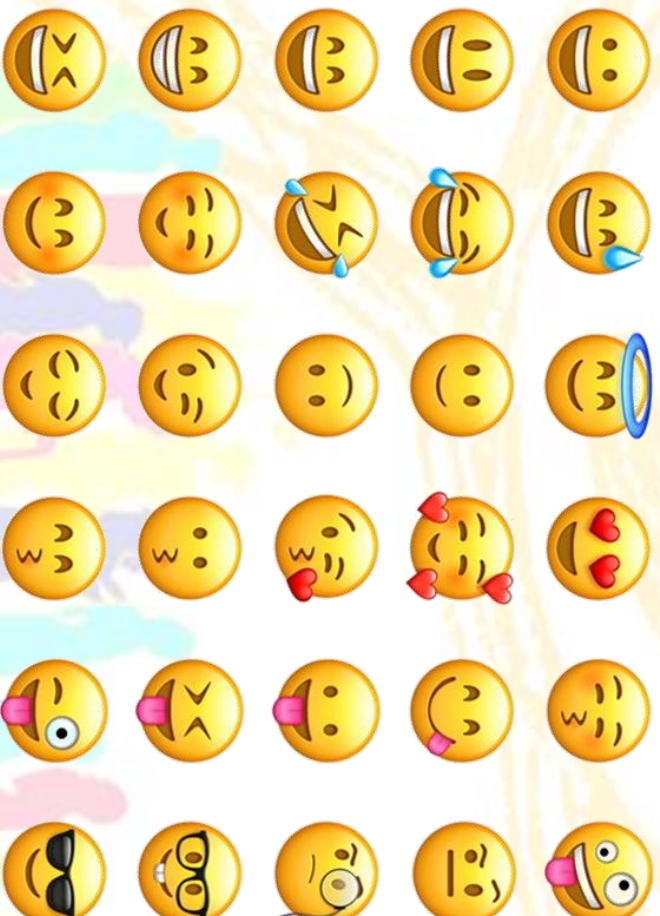

If the player lands on an EMOJI space, the facilitator can select a question from the “Would you rather...” question options.

The player to reach the “END” first wins the game. If there is not enough time to finish the game during the session, the player who is farthest ahead wins.

Gathering Prayer

Leader: Come Holy Spirit,

All: fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Leader: Send forth your Spirit and they shall be re-created.

And You shall renew the face of the earth.

All: O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolation, through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

The Word of God | Acts 2: 1-11, 14-19

Reader: A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together
And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were.

Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them.
And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem.
At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language.

They were astounded, and in amazement they asked,
"Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans
Then how does each of us hear them in his native language?
We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia,
Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia,
Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

The Word of the Lord

ALL: Thanks be to God

Reflection Song

Holy Spirit | Francesca Battistelli (lyric video)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3zARVp3420I>

Quiet Reflection

How and when do you experience the presence of God?

What is something you need God's help for right now? Is there is sin, habit, relationship that you are struggling with? What would you say to God to ask him to help you?

When was the last time you felt close to God? What can you do in the next week to grow closer to God?

Where do you see God acting in the world today? Where do you think God is most needed in the world today? What is one thing you can do to be God's presence to someone who you know needs God's love?

What do you think God wants you to tell you right now?

Take this reflection home and continue to use it in your prayer ever day.

The Synod Prayer

All pray together:

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.
With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.
We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.
Let us find in You our unity so that we may
journey together to eternal life
and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.
Amen.

Closing Prayer

Leader: Come Holy Spirit,
as we continue to learn about the Synod
and walk with one another

ALL: Be with us as a discerning guide to speak what is in our heart, our experience of Church, our joys and sorrows, hopes and dreams.
May we listen carefully to each other so that we may understand how you, Holy Spirit, are calling us be church at this time in our history.

Leader: We ask this through Christ, our Lord.
All: Amen

PREPARING OUR HEARTS AND VOICES

As we prepare to enter into this experience of Church
we invite you to prepare through reflection and prayer.

For a synodal Church

communion | participation | mission

"The Synodal Process is first and foremost a spiritual process.

It is not a mechanical data-gathering exercise or a series of meetings and debates.

Synodal listening is oriented towards discernment."*

We are being invited to listen to the Holy Spirit in the voices of the faithful.

ATTITUDES TO CULTIVATE

Listening

We are called to listen humbly and to speak courageously; to listen in a manner that invites others to share authentically while we ourselves share our experiences and hopes with mercy and charity.

Newness and Conversion

We are invited to embrace the action of the Holy Spirit, particularly in the ways in which the Spirit inspires us to new views and new ways of being Church.

Allowing God to Lead

We are called to allow the Spirit to direct us. To set aside our own expectations so that we can listen more clearly to what God desires of us.

Focus on others

"The Synodal Process is an opportunity to open up, to look around us, to see things from other points of view, and to move out in missionary outreach to the peripheries".

LEAVE BEHIND

Self-centeredness

We need one another. When we set aside self-centeredness "we are able to learn from each other, journey together, and be at the service of one another."

Division and Discord

We are challenged to suspend our judgments and ideologies in order to enter into dialogue that promotes mutual understanding and unity.

Fear

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." 2 Tim 1-7 We are reminded that change is a necessary part of growth and fear inhibits growth.

Self-doubt

The participation of each person is essential for the synodal process to achieve its objective. You are called by virtue of your Baptism, to listen to the Holy Spirit in your life and to share your experience of God and His Church for the good of all His people.

*Vatican Synod Handbook 2.2 - 2.4

REFLECT

In what ways do I hear God calling me to listen and embrace the thoughts, desires, struggles and hopes of others, especially those on the margins?

What do I need to leave behind in order to enter this process with an open heart, an open mind, and a willingness to share my experiences boldly and honestly?

In what ways is God inviting me to allow this experience to transform me and to strengthen my relationship with Him and with the Church?

PRAY

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may
journey together to eternal life

and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

We ask special blessings on the Church of Newark.

May we cherish this opportunity to pray, listen, and discern so that we may continue the mission of Christ as missionary disciples.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.

Amen.

PRAYERS FOR THE SYNOD

In order to “walk together” and listen to the Holy Spirit we need to pray. There can be no communion, participation, and mission without personal and community prayer. Prayer prepares our hearts to listen carefully to others and helps us to discern the action of the Holy Spirit in our lives, in the life of our church, and throughout the world. We encourage your family to pray for the current Synod in your own word or by using any of the prayers below.

PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

adapted from Prayer for our Parish

All powerful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, by the water of the Holy Spirit you freed us from sin and gave us new life. Loving and gracious God, our lives are often pushed and pulled by hundreds of activities. In the busy pace of life, we realize our need to be in touch with the deeper meaning of life.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us to be our Helper and Guide during this Synod as we embark on a new journey of renewal.

Guide us as we put your mission to "Make disciples of all nations" into practice.

Gift us with a spirit of openness and generosity, as we walk with each other as companions on this journey, seeking ways to bring the Good News to all. Make us aware of our many opportunities and responsibilities to be the witnesses of your love, mercy, and call to new life. May we all grow in faith through prayer, the Gospel, and the Eucharist.

Help us to be a people of courage, faith, and holiness. Help us to recognize you as you reveal yourself to us, as you speak to us in the events of our daily lives, and through the Eucharist, prayer, and in each other.

You are inviting us and calling us. Let us respond with eagerness and joy.

Through the intercession of our Blessed Mother may we become faithful disciples of your son Jesus Christ. May the intercession of our parish patron and St. Michael the Archangel keep us safe, protect us from all harm, and strengthen us in our commitment to God and his Church.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

CREATING SACRED SPACE @ HOME

Home altars for a very long time have been considered common in Catholic households. This sacred area serves as a central place for prayer and practice of the faith in the home. We have designated places for nourishment, rest, work, exercise, and/or play at home - why not have a designated, sacred place to pray, both individually and together as a family?

FAMILY FAITH @ HOME

FAMILY SYNDOALITY - THE LISTENING CHURCH @ HOME

Listening is crucial to our relationship to one another and to our relationship with God. God can be speaking to us through one another. Listening to one another can be a complex process. Listening to the other requires attention. Yet attention can be hard—there are lots of distractions around us and within us which pull us away from being attentive. Listening is not just with our ears. It is with our head and our heart. We hope the resources below are helpful to you and your family as you commit to listening to one another more deeply at home. Being a listening family helps our church to be a listening church.

SYNOD LISTENING SESSION @ HOME

This family listening session is intended to actively engage families in the 2021-2023 Synod on Synodality. The theme of 'synodality' itself highlights something important for our understanding of the Church and how the Church operates. The Church cannot simply be reduced to its leadership or even just to the clergy. The Church, as the people of God, includes all of her members, this means your family! It is essential to be a Church that regularly has conversations that include different groups and segments of the one family of God. This family listening session is your opportunity to have your and your family's voices heard by the leaders of your local, archdiocesan, national, and universal church.

7. What are some of the joys of sharing faith as a family? Some of the struggles?
8. At baptism, each of us is called to follow Christ and be His disciple. In what ways can your parish, the Archdiocese, the global Catholic community better engage families to live out this calling?

Closing Prayer- Synod Prayer for the Archdiocese of Newark

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Listening To Our Families Sharing Our Voice with Our Church

FOR A SYNODAL CHURCH
COMMUNION • PARTICIPATION • MISSION

Thank you for participating in the Synod on Synodality! Your family's insights and thoughts are invaluable gifts to the success of this historic effort of the Catholic Church to be a listening church. Please assign one person in your family to serve as the scribe. The scribe is the person who is taking notes and records key points of the conversation. The goal is to capture the essence of your family discussion, not all the details. Work together as a family to discern the key themes of your conversation.
