

The Synod, Christus Vivit, the Encuentro, the National Dialogue and Renewing the Vision ... Oh My!

In the past five years there have been several documents released regarding young people, in addition to previous documents and even now plans for a new Pastoral Document on Youth & Young Adult Ministry from the USCCB!

Come join us as we look at the topic of "What is the Catholic Church asking us to implement in our parishes for and with our young people?"

Gathering on Youth Ministry

St. John Paul II Youth Retreat Center, 499 Belgrove Drive, Kearny

This night is meant for all Pastors, Priests, Deacons, Religious, Youth Ministers, PCL's, Campus Ministers, Volunteers and all those that walk with the young church!

Thursday February 2nd
6:30pm - 9:30pm

Doors open at 6:30pm
for refreshments
Program begins by 7:30pm

Our Presenter - Mr. Paul Jarzembowski

Paul Jarzembowski serves on staff as the National Coordinator for Youth & Young Adult Ministries, for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) in Washington DC, overseeing the U.S. bishops' engagement with laity ministry, ecclesial movements, youth, and young adults. He was the lead staff for the USCCB engagement with the XV Synod of Bishops on "Young People, the Faith, and Vocational Discernment," and its post-synodal exhortation, "Christus Vivit." Paul is also the United States' national coordinator for World Youth Day, and serves as an advisor to the Vatican on ministries with young people.

So that proper plans can be made please register no later than February 1st at www.newarkoym.com